Close finds special joy in 'Sarah'

By John Crook
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

With an Emmy and two Tony Awards to her credit, Glenn Close is no stranger to memorable roles.

She returns in a favorite this week as "Sarah, Plain and Tall: Winter's End" premieres Sunday on CBS.

The Hallmark Hall of Fame presentation, which also stars Academy Award winners Christopher Walken and Jack Palance and Emmy winner George Hearn, finds the Witting family confronting a gathering storm, both literally and metaphorically.

The year is 1918 and, as World War I thunders through Europe, a deadly influenza epidemic is claiming a horrendous death toll at home. And as a particularly vicious late-winter storm begins building over Kansas, an old man arrives at the Witting farm. He is John Witting (Palance), who abandoned his family years ago when Jacob (Walken) was only a child. His abrupt reappearance throws the household into turmoil.

It's a scenario that is ripe for dramatic conflict, and Close says she relishes this opportunity to bring the strong-willed Sarah to life one last time for audiences, following the original "Sarah, Plain and Tall" in 1991 and "Skylark" in 1993.

"It's a luxury to go back to characters that you love," she says warmly. "And we had, in this story, the same passages of time (for the characters) as we did in our own lives. So you'll see children who were 10 in the first one and they're 19 in this one.

"To go back and have an active history with these characters, where you could talk about something and feel that you've actually lived it, gave it great resonance, certainly for me."

While six years have passed since audiences saw "Skylark" — partly due to health problems in the family of screenwriter Patricia MacLachlan, who adapted her own Newbery Award-winning books — Close says she isn't worried that viewers will have forgotten crucial story points in the interim.

"I thought the script was very well-written, reminding people enough of what we'd been through ... and certainly you see our little girl who I'm pregnant with in "Skylark." I think we were particularly careful to make sure that Chris and my relationship had become something different from what it was in the beginning.

"You see (in Jacob) a man very comfortable in his family, and they're happy. They've coped, they've been through something together, and they have a good life. It's very loving, and Jacob is much more forthcoming emotionally — until his father comes."

David Hyde Pierce before 'Frasier'

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

Several years ago, John Forsythe starred as a U.S. Senator in a sitcom with David Hyde Pierce as his son-in-law. I thought it was very funny, but it didn't last. Any chance it may show up in syndication? -Holly Klass, Villa Rica, Ga.

Ordinarily, I'd say the odds are poor that you'll see "The Powers That Be" in syndication, because only a handful of episodes were produced. However, cable has changed the syndication landscape dramatically, and good but short-lived shows are getting a welcome reprise.

With an election year coming up, "Powers" would seem a natural for TV Land or Comedy Central. Its solid-gold cast also included Emmy winner Valerie Mahaffey as Pierce's domineering wife, Peter MacNicol as a bumbling press secretary and, most gloriously, Holland Taylor as Forsythe's terrifying and ruthless wife, a hilarious blend of Nancy Reagan and Lady Macbeth.

I know Betty White and Rue McClanahan are on new TV shows this fall, but what are their former "Golden Girls" colleagues Beatrice Arthur and Estelle Getty doing these days? -Jason in Michigan.

Arthur has had a recurring role on the Showtime comedy "Beggars and Choosers" and recently played Mrs. Mears (the Bea Lillie role) in a showcase production for a proposed Broadway adaptation of the movie musical "Thoroughly Modern Millie."

Getty co-stars as a nun in the new adventure comedy "Fortune Hunters" and lends her voice to the upcoming holiday movie "Stuart Little."

Was Heather Locklear in "The Fall Guy"? -Hoyt Hollaway, Colorado Springs, Colo.

David Hyde Pierce
FRASIER

No, that was Heather Thomas, not Locklear, in the Lee Majors series.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

Touched by an Angel
7 P.M. ON CBS

A big-city mayor is found dead in a hotel room, and only one newspaper has the story everyone wants: the identity of the woman who was in there with him. And you can count on that paper to run the story; the editor (guest star Ann Jillian) is a no-nonsense type who doesn't spend too much time worrying about people's feelings. Roma Downey stars in "The Whole Truth and Nothing but ..."

Movie: Gift of Love: The Daniel Huffman Story
7 P.M. ON SHOW

Anyone who stereotypes teenagers as self-absorbed and unwilling to sacrifice will have his mind changed by Daniel Huffman. The Illinois youth had big dreams of a football career when his beloved grandmother's life was threatened by kidney failure. Without a second thought, he gave up one of his own kidneys to save her, and lost his chances for a much-needed athletic scholarship in the process. Elden Henson (the "Mighty Ducks" movies), Debbie Reynolds and Ed Marinaro star in this fact-based drama. The real Huffman appears as an extra.

Movie: Sarah, Plain and Tall: Winter's End
8 P.M. ON CBS

This new sequel to 1991's "Sarah, Plain and Tall" and 1993's "Skylark" reunites Christopher Walken, Glenn Close, Lexi Randall and Christopher Bell as Kansas farmer Jacob Witting; his mail-order bride, Sarah; and their children, Anna and Caleb. In 1918, as a flu epidemic tears through America and war ravages Europe, the Wittings face disasters closer to home when Jacob's long-lost father (Jack Palance) returns, opening old wounds. As Sarah guides the family through the emotional storm, she's caught in a real one: a deadly late-winter blizzard.

Roma Downey
TOUCHED BY AN ANGEL

Movie: Y2K
8 P.M. ON NBC

It's Dec. 31, and a computer consultant for the government comes to the shocking realization that the Y2K bug is about to bite with a vengeance. It's spreading across the time zones, bringing power failures and threatening bigger problems, but he still has time to ward off the worst ... or does he? Ken Olin, Joe Morton, Ronny Cox and Kate Vernon star.

The Practice
9 P.M. ON ABC

Richard "John Boy" Thomas exorcises those typecasting demons once and for all, guest starring as a serial killer. Confined to a mental hospital, he's petitioning for release, claiming he's feeling much better now. But his lawyer, Lindsay (Kelli Williams), isn't so sure. Murder hits close to home — very close — for Eugene (Steve Harris) when a body is found in his ex-wife's bed.

Hosts travel talk show circuit

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Seems dropping in on the competition is the thing for talk show hosts to do.

Rosie O'Donnell paid a visit to "Queen Latifah"" this fall, Sally Jessy Raphael was a guest on "The View"," and more recently, Maury Povich appeared on "Dream Maker."

Host Richard Simmons received a letter from a journalism student whose dream was to meet Povich. The accommodating Povich met with the student and Simmons and invited them to be a part of that day's studio audience. After the show, Povich actually offered the student an internship; talk about a dream come true!

The talk show being developed for controversial radio host Dr. Laura Schlessinger is moving right along.

The sales team is hard at work and already has placed Dr. Laura in major markets such as Los Angeles, Boston, Detroit and Atlanta.

This is a good indicator that, in addition to hearing her on the radio, next fall you'll be able to watch Dr. Laura yell at advice-seekers on her own TV show.

Talk the Talk

The other talk hopeful with the most optimistic future is "The Ainsley Harriott Show"," hosted by the British gourmet cook and talk show personality.

Positive insider vibes stem from a deal with NBC, whose major station group may start airing the show in January.

This may not be a kind season for talk shows for two reasons: court shows and game shows.

This year's successful court shows — "Judge Judy," "The People's Court," "Divorce Court" — spawn next year's cloned wannabes. Everybody is looking to produce the next spin on televised justice.

The same goes for game shows. The ratings garnered by talk host Regis Philbin and his midsummer dark horse, "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?," spurred lots of game show activity.

First out of the gate is the Fox show "Greed: The Multi-Million Dollar Challenge," hosted by former "Love Connection" host Chuck Woolery and airing this month as three specials.

Rosie O'Donnell

ABC's "The View"" has been enjoying daytime success, and now another one of its hosts adds a prime-time gig to her resume.

Creator and host Barbara Walters has her specials and co-anchors evening shows such as "20/20," but this week it is Meredith Vieira who takes on another job.

She is the new host of Lifetime's "Intimate Portrait," a weekly biography-style television series. Couldn't happen to a nicer — or busier — person.

THIS WEEK

The Barones (Ray Romano, Patricia Heaton) try to keep the Thanksgiving spirit alive in "Everybody Loves Raymond," airing Monday on CBS.

Monday's Best Bets

Intimate Portrait
6 P.M. ON LIFE

"Mary Steenburgen" has friends in high places — including President Bill Clinton and first lady Hillary Rodham Clinton — weighing in on the life and career of the personable actress who took home a best supporting actress Oscar for "Melvin and Howard." Actress Christine Lahti ("Chicago Hope") narrates, and newswoman Meredith Vieira ("The View") makes her debut as host of the profile series.

The King of Queens
7 P.M. ON CBS

To get out of spending Thanksgiving weekend with Carrie's (Leah Remini) best friend and her irritating husband, Doug (Kevin James) cooks up a plot. He invites Spence (Patton Oswalt) to move in, explaining that it's just temporary until Spence can find his own apartment. And he's bound and determined to stretch the apartment search out for the entire weekend. Jerry Stiller also stars in "Roamin' Holiday."

Time of Your Life
7 P.M. ON FOX

They're crammed in like sardines on Turkey Day at Sarah's (Jennifer Love Hewitt). She's invited a homeless man (guest star John Billingsley) to share her holiday dinner, but soon the guest list has expanded to include Maguire, Spencer and Tony (Johnathon Schaech, Patrick Fabian, Rino Romano). As if that weren't hassle enough, a snafu with her recording contract distracts her from the festivities in "The Time They All Come Over for Thanksgiving."

Mariska Hargitay
LAW & ORDER: SPECIAL VICTIMS UNIT

Law & Order: Special Victims Unit
8 P.M. ON NBC

In "Stalked," Benson (Mariska Hargitay) is out for blood after the rape and murder of an assistant district attorney. Stabler (Christopher Meloni) worries that his partner is risking her life with her eagerness to tear the suspect apart in the interrogation room; he has a violent history and a hatred of powerful women. Bruce Kirkpatrick and Allison Mackie guest star.

Frontline
8 P.M. ON PBS

To computer nerds, it's Y2K, the big calendar changeover that could result in some major hassles for our wired world. But to many, the upcoming New Year signals something bigger; after all, what better time than a nice round number such as 2000 for biblical prophecies of the end to come true? The two-hour "Apocalypse!" traces the history of endtimes belief from its origins in the Israelites' slave years in Babylon to modern believers, including a Nebraska farmer who plans to send two planeloads of pregnant Red Angus cattle to Israel in fulfillment of a prophecy about a "red heifer."

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

JAG
7 P.M. ON CBS

A letter critical of the president hits the papers, and Harm's (David James Elliott) future hits the fan. When the critical comments are traced to him, he's faced with the possible loss of his promotion and a new role in the courtroom: defendant. Patrick Labyorteaux and Karri Turner also star in "Contemptuous Words," which is based on a true story.

Movie: Scream
7 P.M. ON FOX

A teen-age girl (Neve Campbell) who helped put her mother's murderer behind bars becomes the target of a mysterious new killer who's slicing and dicing people all over town. Fortunately, she and her friends have seen a lot of movies and know how to deal with slashers; unfortunately, that knowledge isn't enough to stop all the killing. Skeet Ulrich, David Arquette, Drew Barrymore and Courteney Cox also star in this gory but clever 1996 thriller directed by Wes Craven ("A Nightmare on Elm Street") and written by Kevin Williamson ("Dawson's Creek").

Just Shoot Me
7 P.M. ON NBC

Kevin Sorbo ("Hercules: The Legendary Journeys") guest stars as an old friend of Elliott's (Enrico Colantoni) who works in the logging business. Elliott can't wait to see the angry sparks fly between him and the environmentally conscious Maya (Laura San Giacomo), but to his dismay, the sparks are the romantic kind. Jack (George Segal) has competition for press interest in his memoirs in "An Axe to Grind."

Sela Ward
ONCE AND AGAIN

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

She could have been a rodeo queen, but her passion was ballads, not bucking broncos. "Reba McEntire" looks at the Oklahoma-born cowgirl's daughter who was roping and riding competitively before junior high but chose to follow her star to country music superstardom. McEntire herself, relatives, and music-industry colleagues — including Dick Clark and Dolly Parton — tell her bittersweet story in this profile, which is followed by a "Live by Request" special featuring the country diva.

Once and Again
9 P.M. ON ABC

Holidays are always difficult for broken families. But Turkey Day is even harder than anticipated for Lily (Sela Ward). Hoping for some support from her folks, she's surprised to discover that her father hasn't fully sorted out his feelings about which side he's on in her divorce.

Judging Amy
9 P.M. ON CBS

Calling Amy's (Amy Brenneman) Thanksgiving hectic is an understatement. Maxine (Tyne Daly) has put her in charge of dinner, and while she's basting, stuffing and stirring, ex-to-be Michael stirs up mixed emotions with the news that he's ready to go through with their divorce.

Wednesday's Best Bets

Celine Dion: All the Way
7 P.M. ON CBS

The Canadian-born singer is at her titanic best in an hourlong concert special celebrating the restoration of New York's Radio City Music Hall, singing such hits as "Love Can Move Mountains" and "To Love You More." Fellow diva Gloria Estefan joins Dion for a special medley and the pop group 'N Sync for a performance of "Music of My Heart" from the movie of the same name.

100 Years of Women
7 P.M. ON LIFE

Unlike many similarly themed end-of-the-century specials, this one focuses not on the famous, but on extraordinary ordinary folk: women 95 and older who have lived through the big changes of the past 100 years. They include the first female president of the NAACP, a survivor of the cataclysmic Triangle Shirtwaist Co. fire and several women who found their own paths in an era when their sex was expected to stay home. Actress Camryn Manheim ("The Practice") hosts the program, which is produced and directed by the award-winning Maysles brothers ("Christo in Paris," "Salesman").

Movie: Two Babies: Switched at Birth
8 P.M. ON CBS

Rosanna Arquette and Melissa Gilbert star in this fact-based tale of two mothers who learn, several years after giving birth, that they've been raising each other's sons. Although one is an indulgent single mom and the other is a by-the-book married lady, they work together in an effort to do their best by the boys. But a lawsuit and the return of the single mom's gold-digging ex-boyfriend cause complications.

John Spencer
THE WEST WING

The West Wing
8 P.M. ON NBC

President Bartlet (Martin Sheen) has just the man (guest star Edward James Olmos) for a vacancy on the Supreme Court. A closer look at the judge's ideology and connections, however, may force him to reconsider. Scandal threatens the White House when a publicity-hungry congressman (guest star Holmes Osborne, "Crazy in Alabama") makes allegations of substance abuse among the staff — hitting a little too close to home for one member. Rob Lowe and John Spencer also star in "The Short List."

Norman Rockwell: Painting America
9 P.M. ON PBS

After years of being dismissed by the "serious" art world as a simplistic and sentimental illustrator, Norman Rockwell is finally getting his due as an artist. His works are icons of Americana, and his name alone has become shorthand for a cherished vision of a gentler time. This 90-minute special paints a new portrait of Rockwell through interviews with fellow artists, assorted admirers and some of the neighbors who served as his models. Of course, it's liberally illustrated with Rockwell's work — the paintings and some clever live-action re-creations.

THURSDAY'S BEST BETS

Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade
8 A.M. ON NBC

Big balloons, big stars and big bands from all over the country make their way through Manhattan in the mother of all holiday parades. Gary Halvorson, who knows all about making magic happen (he's worked on "Sabrina, the Teenage Witch"), directs the TV coverage of the 73rd annual extravaganza.

Movie: It's a Wonderful Life
12 P.M. ON NBC

James Stewart stars as George Bailey, a small-town businessman facing financial ruin who wishes he'd never been born. An apprentice angel earns his wings by showing George just what a difference his seemingly insignificant life has made to just about everyone else in town. Donna Reed and Lionel Barrymore also star in this perennial holiday favorite from 1946.

NFL Football
3 P.M. ON CBS

Jimmy Johnson returns to Dallas for just the second time since 1994. Despite winning his second Super Bowl that year, Johnson and Cowboys owner Jerry Jones couldn't coexist. Now sunning himself in South Florida with the Miami Dolphins, Johnson's team is making a serious playoff run thanks to one of the NFL's best defenses. Miami will keep close tabs on Cowboys quarterback Troy Aikman, but his favorite target, Michael Irvin, is injured, so Aikman's options are limited. After losing his first trip back to Texas Stadium in 1996, Johnson would like nothing more than to spoil the taste in Jones' mouth on Thanksgiving.

Big Bird
MACY'S THANKSGIVING DAY PARADE

Movie: Forrest Gump
7 P.M. ON ABC

Tom Hanks, who won the best actor Oscar the previous year for "Philadelphia," became the second actor (Spencer Tracy was the first) to win the award two years in a row when he took home the gold statuette for his work in this 1994 comedy-drama. Moviegoers fell in love with the gentle Southerner, short on IQ points but long on heart, who achieves great things by repeatedly being in the right place at the right time. Gary Sinise, Mykelti Williamson and Robin Wright also star.

Movie: Secret of Giving
8 P.M. ON CBS

Rose Cameron is having a tough holiday season. She's a recent widow, her son is sick and the banker is about to foreclose on her farm. A mysterious stranger gives her a hand, but it's his heart that does all the heavy lifting. This new inspirational drama set in the early 1900s stars Thomas Ian Griffith, Ronny Cox and Reba McEntire, who sings the title song and other selections in addition to playing Rose.

FRIDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie: Jingle All the Way
7 P.M. ON ABC

A busy dad goes through the jingle-bell wringer to snag an impossible-to-find action figure for his son. Arnold Schwarzenegger, Rita Wilson, Sinbad and Jake Lloyd ("Star Wars: Episode I — The Phantom Menace") star in this cartoony Christmas comedy from 1996, with Phil Hartman as a lecherous neighbor.

Ricky Martin: One Night Only!
7 P.M. ON CBS

CBS caps off a three-day run of concert specials with a tune-filled hour featuring the reigning king of Latin pop, whose star power has made him a global sensation. In the special, taped at New York's Liberty State Park, Martin performs "Livin' La Vida Loca," "The Cup of Life" and other hits and shares the stage with two veterans of the Latin crossover scene: Carlos Santana and Jose Feliciano.

Movie: Jumanji
7 P.M. ON FOX

Two children (Kirsten Dunst, Bradley Pierce) discover a mysterious board game in their new home's attic. They begin to play, only to discover each roll of the dice unleashes terrifying consequences. When a jungle-ravaged man (Robin Williams) pops out of the game, they learn he was trapped in another world while playing it 20 years earlier. They must finish the game he started to undo all the damage and put things right. Bebe Neuwirth and David Alan Grier also star in the 1995 fantasy.

Sinbad
JINGLE ALL THE WAY

Providence
7 P.M. ON NBC

Finally, the Hansen clan is having a good old-fashioned Thanksgiving, and poor Sydney (Melina Kanakaredes) is hitting roadblock after roadblock on her trip from L.A. back to Providence. But she gets by with a little help from her new friends: three other women who are also trying to get home for the holiday. Katherine Helmond ("Who's the Boss?"), Debi Mazar ("Working") and Lea Moreno ("Legacy") guest star in "Thank You Providence."

8:30 P.M. ON SCIFI
Movie: Field of Dreams

You don't have to be a baseball fan to be moved to tears by this gentle 1989 fantasy. Novelist W.P. Kinsella gave his own last name to the hero, a farmer who heeds an ethereal call to build a baseball diamond in his cornfield. Once built, it becomes the backdrop for scenes from a more innocent time, when players such as a pre-Black Sox Shoeless Joe Jackson ruled the field. Kevin Costner, Amy Madigan, James Earl Jones and Burt Lancaster star, with angel-faced Ray Liotta aptly cast as Shoeless Joe.

The Wizard of Oz

7 P.M. ON TBS

Before VCRs, gathering in front of the tube for the annual broadcast of this 1939 classic was a family ritual. # SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

Figure Skating
7 P.M. ON CBS

The popular "Ice Wars: USA vs. the World" returns, pitting a team made up of some of America's top skaters against one composed of the best from other lands. In this edition of the event, which airs from Baton Rouge, La., the American team includes Tara Lipinski, Kristi Yamaguchi and Brian Boitano, with Ukraine's Oksana Baiul and France's Surya Bonaly among those on the other side.

Movie: Home Alone
7 P.M. ON NBC

Little Macaulay Culkin found big stardom playing Kevin, the little boy who's inadvertently left behind when his family hops a plane to Paris for Christmas. With two inept burglars (Joe Pesci, Daniel Stern) to battle, staying home turns out to be a better adventure than staring at the Eiffel Tower. John Candy also stars in the 1990 comedy, which spawned two sequels.

Movies: Horatio Hornblower: The Duel/Horatio Hornblower: The Fire Ships
7 P.M. ON A&E

Ioan Gruffudd ("Titanic," "Wilde") stars in this series of TV movies, which debuted on A&E in April, about C.S. Forester's naval hero of the Napoleonic wars. In the opener, young Hornblower assumes his first command and earns the respect of his men, with the exception of one sadistic colleague. Next, our hero freezes up in Gibraltar during an examination for promotion but is saved when he diverts a burning ship that's entered the harbor to destroy the British fleet. Robert Lindsay also stars.

Tara Lipinski

Movie: For Your Eyes Only
7:05 P.M. ON TBS

Unwittingly providing scads of material for irreverent heir Austin Powers, James Bond (Roger Moore) charms his way around Greece in this 1981 adventure. He secures the future of the free world by yachting in the Aegean and nurturing meaningful relationships with women, including the daughter (Carole Bouquet) of a murdered scientist. Together, they seek to recapture a high-tech encryption device from an insidious criminal mastermind.

America's Most Wanted: America Fights Back
8 P.M. ON FOX

In a departure from its usual "Have you seen this bad guy?" fare, the series spotlights one of the good folks. Devastated by her inability to save the driver in a flaming car wreck she witnessed in 1995, Jonda Hampton made a promise to herself to be prepared for future emergencies. She got another chance at heroism three years later, fighting water, not fire this time, to help the driver of a car trapped in a creek. John Walsh hosts.
